

KLove Radio is a must in our military community- as an encouragement to families faced with deployments and many single residents on base. If KLove is replaced a vital tool to helping our military community will be removed and will leave a void here. Keeping Klove is essential to our troops and is in the best interest of this installation and community to keep Klove on the Air.